The Minister writes:

We are in interesting times in the church worldwide. We have just witnessed the appointment of a new Pope and a new Archbishop of Canterbury. The new pope comes with a reputation for avoiding pomp and a palace life and being concerned for the poor. The new archbishop is not well known, but I was fortunate to be at a conference recently where he was speaking. I was very encouraged by the conference as a whole and what he said in particular.

At the conference we recognised that difference and therefore conflict is normal. It is OK to disagree passionately, but it is important to stay in relationship with those we disagree with. This gives me hope for the future of the church. We may not be able or even expect to agree with each other about everything; but we can recognise that as children of the same heavenly father we are brothers and sisters together in His family. We are therefore called to love each other, like it or not. We must pray for these new leaders that the hope they bring may be fulfilled.

The events we remember at Easter are, I would say, the most decisive events in human history. They contain the deepest tragedy and the greatest hope. As we enter into this story once again, we are given strength to face our own difficulties and confidence to embrace our times of joy.

Jesus was called to the home of his dear friend Lazarus who was on the point of death. But he does not go straight away. By the time he arrives, Lazarus has died. His sisters Martha and Mary, both say “If only you had been here”. But Jesus transforms the situation, he claims to BE the resurrection and the life. Then he demonstrates it by raising Lazarus from the dead. At this Easter may we know the transforming power of Christ, and that we might experience the hope of new life in whatever we face.

Food Banks – a sign of the times?

The rising cost of food and fuel, combined with static income, unemployment and changes in benefits have seen increasing numbers of people turn to food banks in the UK. Retired archbishop Rowan Williams has even become patron of one in the city of Cambridge.

The Trussell Trust, a Christian charity, now oversees 250 local food banks on a franchise basis. Food banks typically provide boxes of three days of emergency food to tide people over and puts them in touch with agencies that might be able to help in the longer term.

Many food banks are located in or around church premises and across the UK, thousands of people give time and money to gather food supplies and distribute them to those in great need.

The Trussell Trust was founded in 1997 by Carol and Paddy Henderson when they were working for a UN feeding programme in Bulgaria. In the UK, the Trust's network feeds over 128,000 people each year, distributing 1,225 tonnes of food donated by the public, schools and businesses.

If you wish to help a food bank locally, there is one run by St Catherine's Church on Doncaster Road in Wakefield.

It's time for the Annual General Meeting!!

St Peter's church will hold its Annual General meeting on Sunday 21st April at 12pm at the Church Centre. It is an important event in the life of the church: it sets out the church's plans for the year ahead, as well as reviewing what has happened over the past year.

One of the important tasks is to elect the churchwardens for the year. They are the Bishop's agents in the parish and represent all parishioners. The members of the Parochial Church Council (PCC) which helps run the church, are also elected. Everyone who is on the electoral roll of the church is entitled to vote in these elections. Anyone who lives in the parish of Stanley can ask to join the electoral roll (you also have to be over 16, and have been baptised): you don't have to be a regular attendee at church.

The church's financial accounts will also be presented and discussed at the AGM. You can discover how much we will need to pay the Diocese next year and how the church proposes to meet these costs.

Rev Bill Henderson will report on what has happened in the past 12 months and his plans for the future. Various other reports will be presented e.g. by the PCC, the Cubs & Scouts, Brownies, Rainbows, the Ladies Society, and the church wardens.

If you want to learn about what St Peter's church does, what its ministry is all about, where we get our money from and how we spend it, and what the various church officers do, please come along to our AGM. You may be surprised to learn how much goes on!

Memorial Service

On Sunday 14th April at 4pm there will be a Memorial Service at St Peter's Church Centre for anyone suffering from bereavement. It will be an opportunity to remember and pray for friends and family who have died recently or in the past, and for ourselves, who are facing feelings of loss, sadness and grief.

St George—our patron saint who isn't English!

by Canon David Winter, former Head of Religious Broadcasting at the BBC

We will celebrate St George's Day on 23rd April, and it's perhaps typical of the English that they should have a patron saint who isn't English, about whom next to nothing is known for sure, and who may not have existed at all. That didn't stop him being patriotically invoked in many battles, notably at Agincourt and in the Crusades, and of course it is his cross that adorns the flags of English football fans to this day.

It's most likely that he was a soldier, a Christian who was martyred for his faith somewhere in Palestine, possibly at Lydda, in the early fourth century. At some point in the early centuries of the Church he became associated with wider military concerns, being regarded as the patron saint of the Byzantine armies. There is no doubt that he was held as an example of the 'godly soldier', one who served Christ as bravely and truly as he served his king and country.

The story of George and the dragon is of much later date and no one seems to know where it comes from. By the middle ages, when George was being honoured in stained glass, the dragon had become an invaluable and invariable visual element, so that for most people the two are inseparable. Pub signs have a lot to answer for here: 'The George and Dragon'.

However, it's probably more profitable to concentrate on his role as a man who witnessed to his faith in the difficult setting of military service, and in the end was martyred for his faithfulness to Christ.

The idea of the 'Christian soldier' was, of course, much loved by the Victorian hymn-writers - 'Onward, Christian soldiers!'. The soldier needs discipline. The heart of his commitment is to obedience. The battle cannot be avoided nor the enemy appeased. He marches and fights alongside others, and he is loyal to his comrades. In the end, if the battle is won, he receives the garlands of victory, the final reward of those who overcome evil.

St George's Day presents a challenge and an opportunity. The challenge is to distance the message of his life from the militarism and triumphalism that can easily attach itself to anything connected to soldiers and fighting. The opportunity is to celebrate the ideal of the 'Christian soldier' - one who submits to discipline, sets out to obey God truly, does not avoid the inevitable battle with all that is unjust, wrong and hateful in our world, and marches alongside others fighting the same noble cause.

Discipline, obedience, courage, fellowship and loyalty - they're not the most popular virtues today, but that doesn't mean that they don't deserve our gratitude and admiration.

The Bishop of Wakefield, the Rt Rev Stephen Platten, has called on people to pray for the whole food production chain, from struggling farmers to those who are going hungry. "The world produces enough food for everyone, yet nearly a billion people are starving," said Bishop Stephen.

Backing the 'Enough Food For Everyone If' campaign, the Bishop emphasised the call for governments, companies and individuals to work together to reduce hunger and food-wastage worldwide.

Those who produce food "also need prayers". Farmers in the UK, for example, are facing cuts in their income of up to 50 per cent due to weather damage, according to latest estimates from the Department for the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs. "Such crop failures can happen anywhere, so, while we pray for an end to global hunger, we should pray for those who produce the food, too."

‘Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close’ (2012) 12 Rating

Adapted from the acclaimed bestseller by Jonathan Safran Foer, Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close is a story that unfolds from inside the young mind of Oskar Schell (Thomas Horn), an inventive eleven year-old New Yorker whose discovery of a key in his deceased father’s belongings sets him off on an urgent search across the city for the lock it will open.

A year after his father (Tom Hanks) died in the World Trade Center on what Oskar calls “The Worst Day,” he is determined to keep his vital connection to the man who playfully cajoled him into confronting his wildest fears. Now, as Oskar crosses the five New York boroughs in quest of the missing lock—encountering an eclectic assortment of people who are each survivors in their own way—he begins to uncover unseen links to the father he misses, to his mother (Sandra Bullock) who seems so far away from him and to the whole noisy, dangerous, discombobulating world around him.

Free admission, tea & coffee, but bring your own popcorn!

Film shown at the Church Centre, Lake Lock Road, doors open 7pm

Stanley Grove School

Aberford Road, Stanley, Wakefield, WF3 4NT

Tel: 01924 303805, Headteacher: Mrs J Frost

It has been a short, but very busy and productive term at Stanley Grove. The Early Year's Unit has been reading books about the Easter story and have also been learning about firemen, and other people who help us. Class 1's topic has been 'the jungle'. They have written jungle poems, and have even been using the PE apparatus as a jungle! Class 2 have learned all about islands; they've made lighthouse models and had a 'Katie Morag' day when they dressed up.

Class 3 have been looking at weather around the world, and have also been studying different artists such as Monet and Van Gogh. Class 4's topic this term has been the Anglo Saxons. They have written their own accounts of the daily lives of Anglo Saxons and have been doing some weaving. Class 5 has been studying the Tudors: they've looked at Tudor portraits, and also enjoyed a very fascinating visit to the Royal Armouries in Leeds.

We have had some very successful fundraising initiatives recently. Our 'Bags for School' collection raised £150 and a sponsored read raised £513! Thank you to everyone for your support. Our Red Nose Day events were organised by the school council and raised £160.70.

After the Easter holidays, there will be a couple of drop-in sessions for parents wanting some advice on their child's behaviour or emotional development. Details are available on posters in school or from the school office.

Before the Easter holidays, the children will be enjoyed an egg hunt for the main school and an Easter bonnet parade for the Early Years Unit organised by the PTA and also an egg decorating activity organised by the School Council. We would like to wish all our children, parents and staff a very happy Easter break.

What a hoot! One evening the bird loving vicar strolled over to his huge country churchyard, and just for fun, hooted softly, like an owl. To his delight and astonishment, an owl hooted softly back. The next night the same thing happened, and again, the night after that. Soon it became a regular habit, and every night for the following year, no matter what the weather, the vicar would go to the churchyard and hoot back and forth with his feathered friend. The hoots became longer and more complicated, and the vicar kept a careful log of the conversation."

Just as he thought he was on the verge of a real breakthrough in interspecies communication, his wife had a chat with the neighbour who lived in a big house and garden next door to the church. "My husband comes here each night," she said, "to hoot to the owl in the churchyard." "That's odd," the neighbour replied, "so does my husband."

No shelter

No hope, no love, no shelter,
No arms to keep me warm,
I search the long and lonely night,
Through rain and wind and storm.
I have no one to turn to,
No help along the way,
So I just keep on walking,
As night returns to day.

One day I found a shelter
Whose doors were open wide,
Someone came out to meet me:
“My child just come inside.
Come warm your hands and rest here,
Sit, eat and rest and sleep,
We’re here to give you shelter,
A place to find God’s peace.”
We sat and talked in comfort,
The time went, oh! so quick.
They even gave me breakfast;
Dry clothes to keep me warm.
Then told me I could return to shelter in a storm.

As I walked on in comfort
A man came by my side:
“I’ll always walk beside you”
He spoke gently in my ear;
“My name, my son, is Jesus,
Just say you’ll come back here.”

"The wedding's TODAY?!"

Prayers for April

A Prayer for Easter-tide

Dear Father, life can be difficult. Sometimes it feels as though the sun has stopped shining, just as it did on that first Good Friday. Sometimes it can feel as though we are stuck in the darkness and it seems impossible that the light will ever shine again. And yet the reality is that Friday did move on, into the most glorious Sunday. The Son did rise - and his light shines on, transforming the darkest of times, holding out hope and peace and life to all who will turn and look into his face. He is alive. He will help us. Thank you Father, for Jesus. Amen

Daphne Kitching

The God who answers prayer

There is a God who answers prayer
Who intercedes before the throne,
The Son of God who ever cares,
Do not believe you walk alone.

When life seems hard, no answers come
He knows the path that you now tread
Believe on Him though all seems lost
He knows about the tears you shed.

Hold on to Him who is your strength,
Although it seems there's no way through,
Though pain and heartache both are near,
Who holds the world holds also you.

There is a day when all is clear
A day when we all understand
That all our lives but marked a way
That led us to the Promised Land.

By Megan Carter

The Josephs

It began and it ended
With a Joseph,
The life of Jesus.

One laid him in a manger,
The other laid him in a tomb.

One named him Jesus
And brought him up.
The other asked for Jesus,
And brought him down from the cross.

They were both men
Who stood firm
When life said, Run.

They both turned disappointment and despair
Into stepping stones of trust,
And walked on, as witnesses
That to God,
Darkness is a light switch.
